With the National the day before all of the officials and volunteers arrived around 7.00am on Sunday morning, to find that most of the jobs were already done. It would have been easy to be complacent and then have the shock of having 164 racers turn up and throw the day into chaos.

This didn't happen.

Instead we were treated to some incredibly competitive racing, a few light quips on the microphone (and mistakes), some relaxing family fun at the pillories and glorious weather.

If you have photos,
information or stories you would like to share after the next ERSA, send them to

As there are so many photos I will keep the words to a minimum, but I would like to thank all those that went in the pillories for being great sports;
Connor Thompson, Harvey Butters, Daryl Cuthbert, Sophie Little, Neil Mcquoid, Andy Hood, Carl Reeder, Rolf Toogood & Marco Bardetti. If I missed anyone I apologise. The money raised was amazing and I thank all of you that took part.

However there were two who seemed to run from the opportunity when asked, even though they had said they would. A.U and I.M you know who you are, next year it will be your turn!!

Thankfully even though it was windy none of the gazebos managed to attack the Audi A7, though I noticed that McDonalds had been eaten inside which would probably horrify the dealership.

Lastly, again thank you to Team Evolution for the sponsorship of the ERSA races. Paul Telling the main man, arrived to commentate on the team races and then award the prizes. The winners of the Hemel training camp Bursary were Toby Hughes and Georgia Hood both from Norfolk, congratulations to them.

I don't know who this is but I think it's fair to say he enjoyed this

Here it comes Andy

Neil gets the sponge and then the bucket

Marco's children were so excited for the chance to get him, but there seemed to be more and more and more in a line!

Carl ducks, but it still hits

I think he likes you Rolf

Cheer up Phuc, at least you got to drive this

Now the Vikings part

Ipswich CN

A great day, lots of medals and we raised soooooo much money.

Thanks to all the sponsors, all of the organisers and all of the volunteers as we showed the other clubs how to run a race!
